The Ontario Ministry of International Trade and Investment is hosting an executive luncheon seminar at the Tower Club to inform U.S. federal contractors of business opportunities available in Ontario, Canada.

The event will provide concise briefings with helpful suggestions for incorporating Ontario operations into your firm's business. Speakers will include:

- Donald McClure, Vice President for Business Development & Government Relations, Lockheed Canada
- Jean-Philippe Linteau, Commercial Counsellor and Senior Trade Commissioner, Canadian Embassy to the United States
- A senior official from the Ontario Ministry of International Trade and Investment

Ontario offers skills, support, and financial advantages to U.S. government contractors. By establishing operations in Ontario, a U.S. firm enjoys the benefits of “near-shoring” and Canadian business as well as the security, export/import, tax, and immigration incentives unmatched by any other part of the world.

Join us to learn why Ontario offers major U.S. defense, homeland security, cybersecurity, and IT firms a competitive edge in these challenging times. And take advantage of the opportunity to network with U.S. executives and Canadian government officials.

Registration is free and available by contacting Nichole Mangano at Ontario@odellsimms.com or via phone at 703-770-6084.

Please feel free to share this invitation with your colleagues and business associates.
